TO:  Jana Bradley, Director
School of Information Resources and Library Science

Barbara J. Miller, Head
Department of Near Eastern Studies

Edward Donnerstein, Dean
College of Social and Behavioral Sciences

FROM:  Sandra B. Gonzales
Program Coordinator, Senior

DATE:  August 21, 2007

RE: Approval for a new graduate dual degree program – Master of Arts with a major in Information Resources and Library Science and a Master of Arts with a major in Near Eastern Studies

This memorandum consists of official confirmation of final approval granted August 20, 2007, by the Graduate College of the University of Arizona, to implement a new graduate dual degree program, effective Fall 2007.

Students who successfully complete all requirements for this graduate dual degree program will be awarded the Master of Arts with a major in Information Resources and Library Science and a Master of Arts with a major in Near Eastern Studies.

By copy of this memo, I am requesting that appropriate changes be made to systems, records and publications.