TO: Barbara J. Mills, Head
Department of Near Eastern Studies

John W. Olsen, Head
Department of Anthropology

Edward Donnerstein, Dean
College of Social and Behavioral Sciences

FROM: Sandra B. Gonzales
Program Coordinator, Senior

DATE: August 21, 2007

RE: Approval of a new graduate dual degree program – Doctor of Philosophy with a major in Anthropology and a Doctor of Philosophy with a major in Near Eastern Studies

This memorandum consists of official confirmation of final approval granted August 20, 2007, by the Graduate College of the University of Arizona, to implement a new graduate dual degree program, effective Fall 2007.

Students who successfully complete all requirements for this dual degree program will be awarded the Doctor of Philosophy with a major in Anthropology and a Doctor of Philosophy with a major in Near Eastern Studies.

By copy of this memo, I am requesting that appropriate changes be made to systems, records and publications.